EXPERIENCE

October 2009 – present

Wille Design | Contract Designer
Seattle, Washington

I am currently redefining the identity for Wille Design and am translating their brand across various marketing campaigns. Current initiatives include: logo, proposal, and website redesign; technology support and implementation of a social media marketing strategy.

January 2006 – August 2009

NBBJ | Graphic Designer
Seattle, Washington

As a communications team member, I managed and assisted multiple in-house studios with print and online campaigns. Working in the Markets studio, I produced branding materials, marketing collateral, designed packaging, and collaborated on firm presentations. I also served as a member of the firm's sustainable design editorial committee, generating content and producing a quarterly electronic newsletter.

October 2006 – present

Clutch Studio | Partner
Seattle, Washington

I am a design partner of my own print and web design company and have designed websites for a variety of clients. I have also donated graphic design services to several non-profit arts organizations.

October 2005 – January 2006

5th Avenue Theatre | Graphic Designer
Seattle, Washington

I assisted with the design of billboards, web and print ads, marketing collateral and invitations promoting seasonal shows. I also had the opportunity to reorganize and implement a new theater archives program.
